

PRESS RELEASE

DELTA RESPONDS TO CYCLONE IDAI HUMANITARIAN IMPACTS ON COMMUNITIES IN EASTERN ZIMBABWE

The Delta Corporation Limited Board, Management and staff notes with sadness the loss of life, injuries to persons and damages to infrastructure resulting from Cyclone IDAI that ravaged the eastern districts of Zimbabwe. We extend our heartfelt condolences to the relatives of the bereaved and wish those injured a speedy recovery.

We extend our appreciation to all the volunteers, service personnel from various government departments and emergency services, development partners and individuals for the ongoing rescue efforts.

The Company on its part has mobilised immediate food handouts, beverages for service personnel and blankets worth ZWL$50 000 and has pledged a total of ZWL$1,5million towards the ongoing efforts to deal with this emergency. The funds pledged will be utilised through specific projects as agreed with the Civil Protection Unit and/or channelled through emergency relief partners.

We are confident that this donation will alleviate the suffering occasioned on our valued consumers and communities in Eastern Zimbabwe.
